Gods ordinance, the saints priviledge, in two treatises. The first, the saints interest by Christ in all the priviledges of grace: wherein their right to the use of baptisme, and the Lord's Supper, even now during the reigne of antichrist, is cleared; and the objections of these that oppose the same, are answered. The second, the peculiar interest of the elect in Christ, and his saving grace: wherein it is proved that Christ hath not presented to his Fathers justice a satisfaction for the sinners of all men; but onely for the sinnes of them that doe, or shall believe in him, which are his elect onely: and the objections of those that maintaine the contrary are also answered.
